Guidance Information

- Evidence is required from an impromptu speech delivered by the learner to an audience, on a familiar topic. The learner should have a choice of topics such as describing an exciting moment, talking about an experience, and explaining a simple process. The learner must have no more than ten minutes preparation time and is expected to speak for three to five minutes.
- Achievement of the evidence requirements allows for few minor errors in grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation and intonation. Minor errors must not obscure the meaning.
- Definitions
Audience refers to three or more persons.
Complex refers to a wide range of vocabulary and tenses in sentences containing one or more dependent clauses, and complicated grammatical structures.
Intonation refers to the appropriate sound pattern of words, phrases and sentences.
Pronunciation refers to accurate expression of vowels and consonants.
Vagahau Niue refers to the authentic Niue language.
