PREPARATION FOR MODERATION

It is no longer necessary to complete a Moderation Cover Sheet as this information is entered online. If physical materials are sent for moderation, please ensure name of school and standard are included.

Digital submissions can be made directly through the application at any time.

Using the online External Moderation Application, schools and providers must include:

1. the assessment tool or assessment activity or instructions given to the learner (learner evidence guide).
2. an assessment schedule (that includes evidence and judgement statements).
3. six samples of assessed learner work for graded and ungraded standards, one sample each at N,A,M,E and two more at A,M,E.
4. the assessor decisions for each sample of learner work must be clearly identified.
5. individual learners must be clearly identified where the learner is part of a group performance.
6. learner samples must be a complete sample for each individual learner, rather than composite samples.

For moderation to occur:

7. all files must be viewable online
8. URLs, e.g. for student created websites, will need to be submitted as links within a document.

For more information on the digital moderation process, please contact your Principal Nominee or Moderation Liaison (ML).

If you have any issues with preparing materials for moderation OR do not have materials to submit (ie you didn't assess this standard), speak to your Principal Nominee (PN) or Moderation Liaison (ML).

Assessor Information

This unit standard can be awarded with Paetae/Achievement, Kaiaka/Merit and Kairangi/Excellence grades.

Evidence for Paetae/Achieved	Kaiaka/Achievement with Merit	Kairangi/Achievement with Excellence
Demonstrate knowledge of performance components, and the essential skills of performance components.	Demonstrate in-depth knowledge of performance components, and the essential skills of performance components with purpose.	Demonstrate comprehensive knowledge of performance components, and the essential skills of performance components with artistic expression.

Assessment criteria

There are TWO (2) assessment tasks that the ākonga must correctly complete to gain credits for this standard. Once the ākonga has correctly completed the tasks, the assessor must complete the assessment schedule for each ākonga.

Ākonga assessment booklet

The ākonga receives this. It outlines important information for the ākonga including:

- assessment and other information
- assessment tasks.

Ākonga assessment tasks

These sheets and any other evidence should be collected by the assessor and retained for assessment and moderation purposes.

Where ākonga choose to provide oral description/evidence for Task 1 and/or Task 2, this must be recorded (ie recorded onto DVD or USB flash drive). Where ākonga work has been selected for moderation, the DVD or USB flash drive must be included with the materials.

Where a recording of the demonstration is submitted for moderation, the ākonga identification sheet must be included.

You will need to discuss with the ākonga the length of time they have to complete the assessment. He ture-a-kōnui: one credit equates to 10 notional hours of teaching, practice and/or study, and assessment.

Authenticity

As per NZQA requirements, the assessor must:

- verify that the work submitted for assessment has been produced by the ākonga
- consider (and manage) the potential for work to have been copied, borrowed from another ākonga, photocopied from a book or downloaded from the internet.

Ākonga may work with and learn from others to gather information from a variety of sources. However, you must be clear that the work to be assessed has been processed and produced by the ākonga.

To help manage authenticity of ākonga work, where the ākonga is asked to complete any written tasks, the ākonga is asked to use their own words as well as provide reference/s for their information. Please ensure you discuss this with your ākonga.

ASSESSOR INFORMATION – ASSESSMENT TASKS

Outcome 1 Demonstrate knowledge of performance components.

Assessment Task 1 – this task assesses ER 1.1 and 1.2

Describe the history and tikanga, and the features, of the following performance components:

- | | |
|---|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> wiri takahi whētero/whātero | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> pūkana/whākana reo wairua. |
|---|--|

Key factors to consider:

- history* refers to background
- tikanga* refers to meaning, values and Māori world view
- features* refer to characteristics or style
- reo* includes correct pronunciation, in tune, and appropriate to item
- wairua* includes attitude, feeling, passion, mood, and/or essence.

The ākonga must present information in their own words, and references must be provided.

An example of demonstrating knowledge of performance components at the level for Paetae/Achieved.

WIRI	Quivering of the hands, which, to some iwi, signifies the shimmer of heat. To others, it represents the sparkling of the waters as the sun dances across the waves.
TAKAHI	Rhythmic stamping of the feet to a beat. The execution of this may vary from iwi to iwi.
WHĒTERO/WHĀTERO	The protruding of the tongue, which is usually performed by the men only. There are instances, in some iwi, where women may also do it.
PŪKANA/WHĀKANA	The dilating of the eyes to display the whites. This is done to add emphasis to particular words of a haka or waiata.
REO	Using the appropriate voice for haka or waiata comes down to understanding what it is about. Your voice shouldn't be upbeat and joyous if you're singing a lament. Correct pronunciation is critical, as evidenced by the importance placed on it at competitions such as Te Matatini. Singing out of tune is not enjoyable for your audience, or other members of your rūpū. It will spoil what could otherwise be a great performance.
WAIKUA	Kapa haka captures the history (kōrero) of iwi, hapū and/or whānau; the power of te reo, the strength of music and the vitality of movement. It is an evocative engagement of passion and feeling that comes from atua and tūpuna, through the performer, and communicated out to the audience.
Note: Your ākonga has been asked to provide references. Where you have referred to a book, or website, or person, please acknowledge this in your lessons.

Outcome 2 Demonstrate the essential skills of performance components.

Assessment Task 2 – this task assesses ER 2.1

Demonstrate movement and expression, in accordance with iwi, hapū, or whānau tradition, in demonstrating the essential skills of the following performance components:

- | | |
|---|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • wiri • takahi • whātero/whētero | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • pūkana/whākana • reo • wairua. |
|---|--|

Key factors to consider:

- features refer to characteristics or style of a performance component, which may be specific to the category of an item (eg haka, waiata ā-ringa, poi) and/or tradition
- item refers to a composed piece which comprises movement, voice, and lyrics
- movement refers to expressions of performance (eg mahi ā-ringa, ngā nekeneke, ahei, te tū o te tangata)
- essential skills refer to the core features or basic performance competencies of the performance components used in an item
- reo includes correct pronunciation, in tune, and appropriate to item
- wairua includes attitude, feeling, passion, mood, and/or essence.

Note: You are encouraged to explore with your learners the concepts of ihi, wehi, and wana. This is to provide them with a meaningful understanding of wairua (as a performance component) and the essential skills when performed at a higher level.

Kia maumahara te kaiako

for Paetae/Achieved, learners must:

- describe the history and tikanga of each performance component
- describe the features of each performance component
- demonstrate movements and expressions in accordance with iwi, hapū, or whānau tradition.

for Kaiaka/Merit, learners must:

- identify and describe the historical stories relevant to each performance component
- describe the tikanga of the features of each performance component
- demonstrate deliberate movements and appropriate expressions, which are relevant to the item.

for Kairangi/Excellence, learners must:

- identify and describe links between the historical stories and performance components unique to iwi, hapū, or whānau
- describe the significance of the features of each performance component
- demonstrate deliberate movements and appropriate expressions, which enhance the performance of the item.

Tērā ētahi wā, ka hapa te ākonga.

A checklist for this task has been provided for you on the following page. This may help when you complete the assessment schedule.

Please ensure only one checklist is used per ākonga. You will need to photocopy extra copies of the checklist.

An example of demonstrating knowledge of people associated with kapa haka at the level for Paetae/Achieved

TUINI MOETU HAANGU NGAWAI

Tuini Moetu Haangu Ngawai (performer/composer) of Te Whānau-a-Ruataupare, Ngāti Porou descent was born at Tokomaru Bay in 1910 to Te Ra Haangu Ngawai and Te Ipo Parata. She had a twin sister who died in infancy and Moetu was given the name Tuini, a transliteration of twin or “twinny”, to remind her that she was one of twins.

From 1931 Tuini composed more than 200 waiata, and many of them, such as “Hoki mai e Tama mā”, and “E te Hokowhitu-a-Tū” are still sung to this day.

Most of Tuini’s songs were set to popular tunes of the time because, for Tuini, their vital message lay in the words rather than the music, and the performers had to learn the songs by heart as quickly as possible for each new occasion.

The world wars influenced her compositions, especially the Māori soldiers. E Te Hokowhitu-a-Tū was first performed at the great memorial hui on 6 October 1943, to pay tribute to the memory of Lt Moana-Nui-a-Kiwa Ngarimu the Māori Victoria Cross winner. The waiata was not composed for that occasion it took her 2 years to complete it.

Tuini Ngawai passed away at Tokomaru Bay on 12 August 1965. She was buried at Ngaio papa, Tokomaru Bay. Many of her songs were later collected and published by her niece Ngoi Pewhairangi, also a songwriter. Tuini left behind a rich legacy of songs and an unsurpassed standard of composition, work and community leadership.

- verify that the work submitted for assessment has been produced by the ākonga
- consider (and manage) the potential for work to have been copied, borrowed from another ākonga, photocopied from a book or downloaded from the internet.

Ākonga may work with and learn from others to gather information from a variety of sources. However, you must be clear that the work to be assessed has been processed and produced by the ākonga.

To help manage authenticity of ākonga work, where the ākonga is asked to complete any written tasks, the ākonga is asked to use their own words as well as provide reference/s for their information. Please ensure you discuss this with your ākonga.

ASSESSOR INFORMATION – ASSESSMENT TASKS

Describe the design, meaning, and kaupapa of Māori performing arts kākahu, which may include (but is not limited to) the following:

- | | |
|---|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • head-dress • kākahu tāne | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • kākahu wahine • whakakai. |
|---|--|

Design refers to Māori performing arts costume design elements.

Meaning refers to the reasons for using chosen design elements.

Kaupapa refers to the significance of the selection of design elements.

Design elements refer to the basic qualities (eg. line, tone, texture, colour, shape, pattern, form or mass) of two and/or three-dimensional components.

Describe, in terms of tikanga, the use and care of Māori performing arts kākahu, which may include (but is not limited to) the following:

- | | |

The ākonga must present information in their own words, and references must be provided.

Suggestion for a sample answer of one of the five responses expected that would be acceptable for Kaiaka/Merit.

PIUPIU

Historically the piupiu has ignorantly been called a type of 'grass skirt'. Piupiu are made from harakeke (phormium tenax). The decorative elements are in both the waist band (which can be either taniko or plaited), and in the body of the piupiu, which is made from 'strips' of harakeke that has been 'scraped' (exposing the muka) to produce a pattern. These strips are dried before being expertly woven into a piupiu. Once completed the piupiu may be dyed to produce a range of colours, using a number of dyeing processes (either traditional or contemporary, natural or chemical). Dyes may be used to colour the exposed muka and/or the strands of the piupiu. The pattern dictates how well the piupiu looks when worn, and it may accentuate the movement of a performer as it swings. There will always be a kaupapa in the design/pattern. The piupiu will usually be long for women and short for men.

DESIGN

Design elements – basic qualities (eg line, tone, texture, colour, shape, pattern, form or mass) of two and/or three-dimensional components...

Design elements may be chosen for kaupapa of piupiu use (eg competitions) and may use specific iwi/hapū designs.

Some piupiu designs/patterns are:

- korirangi
- poutama
- Tūhourangi/pātiki
- mūmū

or a combination of patterns.

MEANING

The reasons for using the chosen design elements...

Design elements are specific to:

- a rohe/iwi/hapū/whānau
- a kapa haka
- a kaupapa.

Historical knowledge held by the rūpū making the piupiu.

Time constraints – being able to deliver piupiu when required versus how much time is given to complete an order.

Differing costs of piupiu depending on pattern/design.

KAUPAPA

The significance of the selection of the design elements...

Design elements are specific to:

- a rohe/iwi/hapū/whānau
- a kapa haka
- a kaupapa.

Competing for kākahu trophy in competition.

Distinguishing certain performers in a kapa (eg manukura, performers with specific roles).

TIKANGA

The appropriate way to use and care for this component of the Māori performing arts costume...

The appropriate way to use the piupiu.

- how the piupiu is worn (crossed in the front or the back?)
- does pattern sit evenly (balance of design)
- where are the ties? (back or front? tucked in or left out?)
- is there a gap between the pari or tātua and the piupiu?
- does the piupiu fit? (is there a gap at the join? does it overlap too much?)
- is the piupiu the correct length for the wearer?

The appropriate way to care for the piupiu.

- does performer know how to sit or kneel in a piupiu?
- does performer know how to tie piupiu correctly?
- how is piupiu cared for after each use? (fold/roll/ wrap?)
- does piupiu get put in something (stocking/bag?) or not?
- where is piupiu stored? (what kind of environment/container?)

Ākonga may also include discussion of any of the following aspects to help explain their responses:

- timeline (eg of key events that influenced the designs of the costumes)
- compositions (eg comparing events that influenced the meaning and designs of the costumes)
- events (eg progression of the development of a specific key event that may have influenced the kaupapa for the costumes)
- other factors (eg movement from rural to city and the reference of the Māori performing arts costume as a link to culture/home or vice versa).

Ākonga assessment booklet

The ākonga receives this. It outlines important information for the ākonga including:

- assessment and other information
- assessment tasks.

Ākonga assessment tasks

These sheets and any other evidence should be collected by the assessor and retained for assessment and moderation purposes.

Where ākonga choose to provide oral description/evidence for Task 1, 2 and/or Task 3, this must be recorded (ie recorded onto DVD or USB flash drives). Where ākonga work has been selected for moderation, the DVD or USB flash drives must be included with the materials.

ASSESSOR INFORMATION – ASSESSMENT TASKS

Outcome 1 Demonstrate knowledge of mōteatea.
LEVEL
Assessment Task 1 – this task assesses PC 1.1Describe THREE different categories of mōteatea

The categories of mōteatea are – oriori, pao, pātere, waiata aroha, waiata tangi.

1.1 Mōteatea are described in terms of their categories.

The ākonga must present information in their own words, and references must be provided.

Sample answer that would be acceptable ‘Kaiaka/Merit’.1. WAIATA AROHA

Waiata aroha is a chant that expresses love/affection/fondness for a person or objects and may be composed by either men or women. The waiata can be done in short or long form.

Waiata aroha are musically (lyric and tune) indistinguishable from laments, and indeed their whole tone is mournful, as they are invariably concerned with lost or unrequited love.

Mihi-Ki-Te-Kapua was of Ngāti Ruapani (Waikaremoana) and is responsible for the composition of many mōteatea that are sung today including Taku Rākau and Engari te tītī. She was also responsible for composing a waiata aroha that has the following opening line: Tiketike rawa mai Te Waiwhero...

Reference: Ngata, A.T., Jones, P.T.H., (2004) Ngā Mōteatea – The Songs Part One. Auckland, New Zealand: University Press.

Note: Your ākonga has been asked to provide references. Where you have referred to a book, or website, or person, please acknowledge this in your lessons.

Assessment Task 2 – this task assesses ER 1.2

Describe the tikanga and pūtake for TWO mōteatea, each from different categories.

The categories of mōteatea are – oriori, pao, pātere, waiata aroha, waiata tangi.

1.2 Mōteatea are described in terms of tikanga and pūtake.

Sample answer that would be acceptable for ‘Kaiaka/Merit’. Please note that learners must provide answers for ONE mōteatea from each category.

1. WAIATA TANGI

Taku rākau e – Mihi-ki-te-kapua (17??-18??)

Mihi-ki-te-kapua composed this waiata in 1873. Mihi-ki-te-kapua was born in Te Whaiti, however the actual date is not known but it is thought to have been before the turn of the 1800s. Her iwi connections are Ngāti Ruapani and Ngāi Tūhoe.

Mihi-ki-te-kapua wanted Tūhoe to take revenge on her husband’s iwi for breaking the rāhui she had placed on their land where her son had been killed in battle.

In the mōteatea she is inciting the warriors of Tūhoe to battle and telling them to remember the kahikātoa for its strength, be strong like the kahikātoa, to fight on like the shark that never gives up, like the tarakihi.

Taku rākau e	My walking stick
Tau rawa ki te whare	Reaches the house
Ka ngaro a Takahi e	Takahi has gone
Te whare o te kahikātoa	The house of te kahikātoa
Hei ngau whakapae	As the besieging attack
Hei whakapae ururoa e	Like the attack of the shark
hau mai nei	heard about
Kei waho kei te moana	Out there at the sea

1. PŌHIRI – KA PĪOIOI

There are two kōrero with regard to the composer of this song:

1. Kereopa Ratapu (Rongomaiwahine) wrote this song while he was training at Palmerston North Teachers College in 1990, to express his feeling about coming back home to his family after serving with the NZ Army in Singapore in the 1980s.
2. Tamai Nicholson composed this song in 1990. He was born in 1961 and grew up in Dannevirke. His iwi connections are Ngāti Pakapaka, Ngāti Pāhauwera, Ngāti Kurahikakawa and Ngāti Aonui.

This item welcomes the people of the marae who, for a long time, lived and worked away from home.

Ka pīoioi he	The swaying dance
Tohu aroha haukāinga	A symbol of the love of the home people
E hoki mai rā	Returning home
Kia kite atu i tō iwi e	To see your people
E rotarota ana	There is gesturing and
E katakata ana mai rā	Laughing with joy at your return
Pūkana, whētero mai	Eyes popping and tongue thrusting
I te ihi a ō mātua	From the essential force of your forebears
Kia kite atu anō au	To see again
I tō ātaahua e kanapa rā	Your beauty glistening and gleaming
Pupuhia e te hau	Cleansed by the wind
Kapohia aku roimata	My tears are captured

ASSESSOR INFORMATION – ASSESSMENT TASKS

Outcome 1 Demonstrate knowledge of poi.
Assessment Task 1 – this task assesses PC 1.1
Describe the categories of poi.

The categories of poi are – single short poi, double short poi, single long poi, double long poi, quadruple long poi

1.1 Poi are described in terms of their categories.

The ākonga must present information in their own words, and references must be provided.

Sample answer that would be acceptable for 'Kairangi/Excellence.
1. SINGLE SHORT POI

Single short poi – Poi originates from the indigenous Māori people of New Zealand, and the word 'Poi' simply means ball. It refers to both a style of performing arts and the equipment used to engage in the performance.

Poi are shaped into round 'balls' and stuffed with a variety of material such as the down of raupō, cloth, crumpled paper or fibre and covered with a variety of covers – raupō, cloth, canvas and/or plastic. The poi is attached to strings of varying lengths and swung rhythmically and geometrically to display a wide range of skill and beauty. Originally the poi was manipulated, basically to keep hands flexible for weaving. The poi handle or string will either be short or long and used singularly or in pairs.

Poi come in two forms: short, with strings equal to the length of the fingertips to the wrist; and long, with strings equal to the distance from fingertips to shoulder. However many kapa haka groups in modern times prefer to use a longer short poi, with string equal to the length of the finger tips to midway between the wrist and the elbow.

Māori men used poi to increase flexibility and strength in their hands and arms; to improve balance, dexterity and co-ordination required during battle. To train fighting warriors, bags called kii were filled with a large stone and swung around to make the arms and wrists supple and strong, and to test reactions. The kii bags were made of flax with short ropes, but when the warriors and boys trained with them they would put on extra lengths of rope.

Another variety of poi is poi tāniko. In this construction, the outer shell was made of finely woven muka using a pattern based on a fishing net; these poi sometimes included strands that were dyed yellow to form a diamond pattern known as Te Karu o te Atua (the Eye of God).

Traditional raupō poi are less likely to be used by modern poi artists since traditional materials wear quickly with frequent use. Also, flax and raupō are becoming increasingly difficult to find, as the wetlands where they are naturally found have been drained or made into conservation reserves (although traditional harvesting is, generally, allowed by law).

Today, most performance poi are made from durable and readily available modern materials. Cores are often made of foam or crumpled paper, while skins consist of plastic or loomed fabrics, such as tulle. Tassels are usually made of wool.

Assessment Task 2 – this task assesses PC 1.2

1.2 Poi are described in terms of tikanga and pūtake.

Sample answer that would be acceptable for ‘Kaiaka/Merit’. Please note that learners must provide answers for ONE poi for this task.

POI ONE
NAME	Pāketē Whero
CATEGORY	Single Short Poi
COMPOSER NAME	Ihaperā (Isabella) Thom (Guide Bella Papakura)
COMPOSER IWI	Tūhourangi
WHEN POI WAS COMPOSED (APPROXIMATELY)	Early 1900's
WHY POI WAS COMPOSED.
This poi has been famous at Whakarewarewa since the early 1900s. The composer is said to have composed this song in honour of a man from Ruatāhuna that she was secretly having an affair with (Paringatai, 2004). Throughout the song there are hints of their secret love – eg. meeting places (Hinemoa Street lakeside reserve), the wearing of the red scarves (potentially his being a cravat) by both of them, Tarapounamu (a mountain peak east of Ruatāhuna, the home of Bella's lover). Tarapounamu / tara pounamu Tara has several meanings: it can be a spike or spear tip, and thus it is used as a colloquial term for the penis. Tara also describes the side walls between two houses, and so it is sometimes used as a term for the vagina. Tatau pounamu (a door of greenstone), is a metaphor for enduring peace. Greenstone carvings were beautiful and everlasting and were exchanged as symbols of peace. So, by using a variant of this phrase, “tara pounamu” (a sexual organ of greenstone), Bella describes the feeling of utter peace she experienced after she and her lover gifted their sexuality to each other. Bella was noted to be fascinated with horse racing and the sounds of galloping hooves was incorporated into the poi as a fast beat.

Pāketē whero Mau mai a koe Māku e here Ka tino pai rawa e	The red scarf you are wearing matches mine. How totally delightful!	In 1905, guides in the Rotorua thermal area wore red headscarves. Bella's lover wore a red one around his neck (potentially this was a cravat)
Hoatu koe i mua Hinemoa Tiriti Ko au i muri Kei mātauria	You go in front down Hinemoa Street I walk along behind lest our secret becomes known.	Hinemoa Street led to a lakeside reserve with secluded places where lovers could meet
He rau kiokio Taimaha rikiriki He rau koromiko Tō pera o runga e	Soft pink fern leaves is your bed-mat and koromiko leaves your pillow.	Kiokio, a palm-leaf, ground fern (Blechnum novae-zelandiae) Miro, an evergreen coniferous tree (Hebe elliptica)
Tō pikitanga Taumata-te-rāiti. Tō heketanga Ko tara pounamu e	Your ascent brings an explosion of light Your descent brings peaceful intimacy	A description of their love- making

MĀORI PERFORMING ARTS

UNIT STANDARD 13371 (VERSION 13)

Demonstrate knowledge and skills of haka

(Level 2, Credits 6)

ASSESSOR BOOKLET

Assessor Information

This unit standard can be awarded with Paetae/Achievement, Kaiaka/Merit and Kairangi/Excellence grades.

Evidence for Paetae/Achieved	Kaiaka/Achievement with Merit	Kairangi/Achievement with Excellence
Demonstrate knowledge of haka, and the essential skills of haka.	Demonstrate in-depth knowledge of a haka and the essential skills of haka with purpose.	Demonstrate comprehensive knowledge of haka, and the essential skills of haka with artistic expression.

Assessment criteria

There are THREE (3) assessment tasks that the ākonga must correctly complete to gain credits for this standard. Once the ākonga has correctly completed the tasks, the assessor must complete the assessment schedule for each ākonga.

Ākonga assessment booklet

The ākonga receives this. It outlines important information for the ākonga including:

- assessment and other information
- assessment tasks.

Ākonga assessment tasks

These sheets and any other evidence should be collected by the assessor and retained for assessment and moderation purposes.

Where ākonga choose to provide oral description/evidence for Task 1, 2 and/or Task 3, this must be recorded (ie recorded onto DVD or USB flash drives). Where ākonga work has been selected for moderation, the DVD or USB flash drives must be included with the materials.

Where a recording of the demonstration is submitted for moderation, the ākonga identification sheet must be included.

You will need to discuss with the ākonga the length of time they have to complete the assessment. He ture-a-kōnui: one credit equates to 10 notional hours of teaching, practice and/or study, and assessment.

Authenticity

As per NZQA requirements, the assessor must:

- verify that the work submitted for assessment has been produced by the ākonga
- consider (and manage) the potential for work to have been copied, borrowed from another ākonga, photocopied from a book or downloaded from the internet.

Ākonga may work with and learn from others to gather information from a variety of sources. However, you must be clear that the work to be assessed has been processed and produced by the ākonga.

To help manage authenticity of ākonga work, where the ākonga is asked to complete any written tasks, the ākonga is asked to use their own words as well as provide reference/s for their information. Please ensure you discuss this with your ākonga.

For further information, please refer to the following link:

<https://www.nzqa.govt.nz/providers-partners/assessment-and-moderation-of-standards/assessment-of-standards/generic-resources/authenticity/>

Referencing

PREPARATION FOR MODERATION

It is no longer necessary to complete a Moderation Cover Sheet as this information is entered online. If physical materials are sent for moderation, please ensure name of school and standard are included.

Digital submissions can be made directly through the application at any time.

Using the online External Moderation Application, schools and providers must include:

1. the assessment tool or assessment activity or instructions given to the learner (learner evidence guide).
2. an assessment schedule (that includes evidence and judgement statements).
3. six samples of assessed learner work for graded and ungraded standards, one sample each at N,A,M,E and two more at A,M,E.
4. the assessor decisions for each sample of learner work must be clearly identified.
5. individual learners must be clearly identified where the learner is part of a group performance.
6. learner samples must be a complete sample for each individual learner, rather than composite samples.

For moderation to occur:

7. all files must be viewable online
8. URLs, e.g. for student created websites, will need to be submitted as links within a document.

For more information on the digital moderation process, please contact your Principal Nominee or Moderation Liaison (ML).

If you have any issues with preparing materials for moderation OR do not have materials to submit (ie you didn't assess this standard), speak to your Principal Nominee (PN) or Moderation Liaison (ML).

ASSESSOR INFORMATION – ASSESSMENT TASKS

Outcome 1 Demonstrate knowledge of haka.
LEVEL 2
Assessment Task 1 – this task assesses PC 1.1
Describe THREE different categories of haka.

Categories of haka may include but are not limited to – kaioaraora, pōkeka, manawa wera, ngeri, taparahi, tutungārahu, peruperu, whakatū waewae.

1.1 Haka are described in terms of their categories.

The ākonga must present information in their own words, and references must be provided.

Sample answer that would be acceptable for ‘Kaiaka/Merit’.
1. TŪTŪ NGĀRAHU

Tūtū ngārahu were traditionally performed before going into battle to invoke Tūmataunga (god of war), and warn the enemy of the fate awaiting him (or her).

Not only is the tūtū ngārahu noted for being a haka performed with weapons, but also for its up and down jumps (pēpeke or whakapēpeke), which the kapa haka would do in unison. Traditionally, they were done (usually prior to the war party leaving for battle) in front of kaumātua and experienced warriors, who judged by the performance whether the ope tauā (or individuals) were ready to go into battle. Sometimes, however, tutu ngārahu were performed on the battlefield, to show the enemy one's preparedness for battle.

Also called ngārahu, tū ngārahu, tūtū ngārehu, tūtū waewae, and whakarewarewa – the tūtū ngārahu was not a haka of the whare tapere.

1. NGERI

Ka Mate – Te Rauparaha (1760-1849)

“Ka mate” is a ngeri, the lyrics of which were composed by Te Rauparaha, a chief of Ngāti Toa Rangatira. It was written sometime between the 1760s and 1849.

During conflict with Waikato and Ngāti Maniapoto, Te Rauparaha travelled from Kāwhia to seek alliances with other iwi, including Ngāti Tūwharetoa. At Te Rapa, he was told by Te Heuheu that he was being pursued by a war party seeking revenge. Te Heuheu directed Te Rauparaha to seek the protection of Te Wharerangi.

Te Wharerangi instructed Te Rauparaha to climb into a kūmara pit and for his wife (Te Rangikōaea) to sit on top. By combining the spiritual qualities of a woman (mana wahine) and of food (noa), Te Wharerangi was able to weaken the power of the karakia from the tohunga guiding the war party to him.

As he hid in the pit Te Rauparaha wondered whether he would survive the ordeal or die. It was during this time that he muttered “Ka mate! Ka mate!” under his breath (Will I die?), and “Ka ora! Ka ora!” (Or will I live?). Te Wharerangi eventually convinced Ngāti Te Aho that Te Rauparaha had escaped. It was then that Te Rauparaha finally exclaimed “Ka ora! Ka ora! Tēnei te tangata pūhuru hū, nāna i tiki mai whakawhiti te rā!” (I live! I live! For it was the power of a woman that fetched the sun and caused it to shine again!)

Demonstrate comprehensive knowledge of influencing factors in the historical development of Māori performing arts.

Assessment criteria

There is ONE (1) assessment task that the ākonga must correctly complete to gain credits for this standard. Once the ākonga has correctly completed the task, the assessor must complete the assessment schedule for each ākonga.

As mentioned above, the grades for this assessment include Paetae, Kaiaka, or Kairangi. Grades awarded will depend on how well ākonga demonstrate knowledge and skills of performance components.

Ākonga assessment booklet

The ākonga receives this. It outlines important information for the ākonga including:

- assessment and other information
- assessment tasks.

Ākonga assessment tasks

These sheets and any other evidence should be collected by the assessor and retained for assessment and moderation purposes.

You will need to discuss with the ākonga the length of time they have to complete the assessment. He ture-a-kōnui: one credit equates to 10 notional hours of teaching, practice and/or study, and assessment.

Authenticity

As per NZQA requirements, the assessor must:

- verify that the work submitted for assessment has been produced by the ākonga
- consider (and manage) the potential for work to have been copied, borrowed from another ākonga, photocopied from a book or downloaded from the internet.

Ākonga may work with and learn from others to gather information from a variety of sources. However, you must be clear that the work to be assessed has been processed and produced by the ākonga.

To help manage authenticity of ākonga work, where the ākonga is asked to complete any written tasks, the ākonga is asked to use their own words as well as provide reference/s for their information. Please ensure you discuss this with your ākonga.

ASSESSOR INFORMATION – ASSESSMENT TASKS

Outcome 1 Demonstrate knowledge of influencing factors in the historical development of Māori performing arts.

Range: pre-1990s and post-1990s.

Assessment Task 1 - this task assesses PC 1.1 and 1.2

Explain how THREE (3) of the factors listed below have influenced the development of Māori performing arts over EACH of the following time periods:

- pre-1990s and post-1990s

Choose TWO (2) environmental factors.

Environmental factors may include:

- political
- social
- economic
- technology.

Choose ONE (1) sociological factor.

Sociological factor may include:

- media
- people
- events
- religion
- organisations.

The ākonga may use the sheets in the Ākonga Booklet to record their answers and/or use a range of other techniques to present their explanations – eg PowerPoint, mind maps, posters drawings etc.

The ākonga must present information in their own words, and references must be provided.

Note: Influences may be positive or negative.

Examples of environmental factors may include:

- political (eg government policies, funding initiatives etc)
- social (eg emergence of Māori immersion education, employment opportunities etc)
- economic (eg funding for education programmes, centralisation of resources through rūnanga, tourism etc)
- technology (eg allows for diversity from traditional instruments, improved access to resources etc).

Examples of sociological factors may include:

- media (eg increases exposure / promotion, dedicated television channel – Māori Television, online streaming and content – Māori Television, Haka TV, Youtube)
- people (eg role models – ie tutors, composer, kaihaka etc)
- events (eg increased exposure through festivals and competitions)
- religion (eg displacement of tikanga and protocols, the influence of choral singing, Hui Aranga)
- organisations (eg Te Matatini Inc, Te Taura Whiri i te reo Māori, iwi representation).

An example of demonstrating knowledge of environmental factors that have influenced the development of a Māori performing arts discipline at the level for Paetae/Achieved.

During times of war it was popular to compose waiata about the wars. Kaupapa ranged from celebrating a victory or a valiant soldier (or soldiers), commiserating a fallen soldier(s), and the return of our troops.

In the seventies and eighties waiata were being composed about issues of the time, such as the loss of te reo Māori etc.

In more recent times, waiata are still being composed to highlight kaupapa important to Māori, including political issues of the time, for example the seabed and foreshore, environmental issues, and a national day of remembrance for the New Zealand land wars (Homai Te Rā).

Picture retrieved from: <http://www.teara.govt.nz/ website>

An example of demonstrating knowledge of a sociological factor that has influenced the development of Māori performing arts event at the level for Paetae/Achieved.

An example of a sociological factor influencing Māori performing arts is the introduction of Māori performing arts events (including competitions). They are unique in the fact that the performers must sing and dance with expression, movement and choreography, combined into each item. These competitions are one of the primary reasons for the continuing survival and re-energising of Māori culture.

During the 1930's the first urban kapa haka groups were formed to provide a cultural connection for those dispossessed of their culture by urbanisation. While these groups continued to serve the earlier functions of fundraising and tourist entertainment, they were also a valuable vehicle for preserving te reo and tikanga.

In 1972, the first Polynesian Festival was held at Whakarewarewa, Rotorua. The festival grew in size and strength and became the Aotearoa Māori Festival of Arts, and then the Aotearoa Traditional Māori Performing Arts Festival. The festival's focus was on the long term nurturing of Maori performing arts, with rising concern about preserving the Māori language and other elements of traditional culture giving it greater importance.

In 2005 the festival became known as Te Matatini National Kapa Haka Festival. Held biennially, Te Matatini is the premier showcase for kapa haka. There are other competitions held for primary and college schools every year.

The composer:

Their iwi:

Category: Tūtū Ngārahu

Why the haka was composed:

The intended performance style for haka:

Tūtū ngārahu were traditionally performed before going into battle to invoke Tūmatauenga (god of war), and warn the enemy of the fate awaiting him (or her)

Not only is the tūtū ngārahu noted for being a haka performed with weapons, but also for its up and down jumps (pēpeke or whakapēpeke), which the kapa haka would do in unison. Traditionally, they were done (usually prior to the war party leaving for battle) in front of kaumātua and experienced warriors, who judged by the performance whether the ope tauā (or individuals) were ready to go into battle. Sometimes, however, tutu ngārahu were performed on the battlefield, to show the enemy one's preparedness for battle.

Also called ngārahu, tū ngārahu, tūtū ngārehu, tūtū waewae, and whakarewarewa – the tūtū ngārahu was not a haka of the whare tapere

Their iwi: Ngāti Toa Rangatira

Category: Ngeri

Why the haka was composed: Ka mate!

"Ka mate" is a ngeri, the lyrics of which were composed by Te Rauparaha, a chief of Ngāti Toa Rangatira. It was written sometime between the 1760s and 1849.

During conflict with Waikato and Ngāti Maniapoto, Te Rauparaha travelled from Kāwhia to seek alliances with other iwi, including Ngāti Tūwharetoa. At Te Rapa, he was told by Te Heuheu that he was being pursued by a war party seeking revenge. Te Heuheu directed Te Rauparaha to seek the protection of Te Wharerangi.

Te Wharerangi instructed Te Rauparaha to climb into a kūmara pit and for his wife (Te Rangikōaea) to sit on top. By combining the spiritual qualities of a woman (mana wahine) and of food (noa), Te Wharerangi was able to weaken the power of the karakia from the tohunga guiding the war party to him.

The intended performance style for haka:

As he hid in the pit, Te Rauparaha wondered whether he would survive the ordeal or die. It was during this time that he muttered "Ka mate! Ka mate!" under his breath (Will I die?), and "Ka ora! Ka ora!" (Or will I live?). Te Wharerangi eventually convinced Ngāti Te Aho that Te Rauparaha had escaped. It was then that Te Rauparaha finally exclaimed "Ka ora! Ka ora! Tēnei te tangata pūhuru, nāna i tiki mai whakawhiti te rā!" (I live! I live! For it was the power of a woman that fetched the sun and caused it to shine again!)

Two sample answers have been provided, however, ākonga will need to do 5.

Poi 1: Sample answer for kaiaka/merit

The pūtake and tikanga of poi (if you need more paper to write, add or staple to this ākonga booklet)

The composer: Ihapera Thom

Their iwi: Tūhourangi

Category: Single short poi Pāketē Whero, early 1900s

Why the poi was composed:

This poi has been famous at Whakarewarewa since the early 1900s. The composer is said to have composed this song in honour of a man from Ruatāhuna that she was secretly having an affair with (Paringatai, 2004).

Throughout the song there are many hints of their secret love – e.g, meeting places (Hinemoa street lakeside reserve), the wearing of the red scarves (potentially being a cravat) by both of them, Tarapounamu (a mountain peak east of Ruatāhuna, the home of Bella's lover).

The intended performance style for poi:

Tarapounamu

Tara has several meanings; it can be a spike or spear tip, and thus it is used as a colloquial term for penis. Tara also describes the side walls between two houses, and so it is sometimes used as a term for the vagina.

Tātau pounamu (a door of greenstone), is a metaphor for enduring peace. Greenstone carvings were beautiful and everlasting and were exchanged as symbols of peace. So, by using a variant of this phrase, 'tara pounamu' (a sexual organ of greenstone), Bella describes the feeling of utter peace she experienced after she and her lover gifted their sexuality to each other.

Bella was known to be fascinated with horse racing and the sounds of galloping hooves was incorporated into the poi as a fast beat.

Poi 2: Sample answer for kaiaka/merit

The pūtake and tikanga of poi (if you need more paper to write, add or staple to this ākonga booklet)

The composer:

Their iwi:

Category: Single short poi

Why the poi was composed:

Single short poi – Poi originates from the indigenous Māori people of Aotearoa/ New Zealand, and the word poi simply means ball. It refers to both a style of performing arts and the equipment used to engage in the performance.

Poi are shaped into round balls and stuffed with a variety of material such as the down of raupō, cloth, crumbled paper or fibre and covered with a variety of covers – raupō, cloth, canvas, and/or plastic. The poi is attached to strings of varying lengths and swung rhythmically and geometrically to display a wide range of skill and beauty. Originally the poi was manipulated, basically to keep hands flexible for weaving. The poi handle or string will either be short of long and used singularly or in pairs.

The intended performance style for poi:

Poi comes in two forms: short, with strings equal to the length or the fingertips to the wrist; and long, with strings equal to the distance from fingertips to shoulder. However, many kapa haka groups in modern times prefer to use a longer short poi (three quarter), with string equal to the length of the fingertips to midway between the wrist and elbow.

Today, most performance poi are made from durable and readily available modern materials. Cores are often made of foam or crumbled paper, while skins consist of plastic or loomed fabrics, such as tulle. Tassels are usually made of wool.

Why the waiata ā-ringa was composed:

There are two kōrero with regard to the composer of this song. 1 Kereopa Ratapu, from Rongomaiwahine wrote this song while he was training at Palmerston North Teachers College in 1990, to express his feelings about coming back home to his whānau after serving with the NZ Army in Singapore in the 1980s

2 Tamai Nicholson composed this song in 1990. He was born in 1961 and grew up in Dannevirke. This item welcomes the people of the marae who, for a long time, lived and worked away from home.

Ka pōioi he	The swaying dance
Tohu aroha haukāinga	A symbol of the love of the home people
E hoki mai rā	Returning home
Kia kite atu i tō iwi e	To see your people
E rotarota ana	There is gesturing and
E katakata ana mai rā	Laughing with joy at your return
Pūkana, whētero mai	Eyes popping and tongue thrusting
I te ihi a ō mātua	From the essential force of your forebears
Kia kite atu anō au	To see again
I tō ātaahua e kanapa rā	Your beauty glistening and gleaming
Pupuhia e te hau	Cleansed by the wind
Kapohia aku roimata	My tears are captured
Ka pōioi he	The swaying dance
Tohu aroha haukāinga	Shows the love of the home people

This item acknowledges the performance skills that Māori have – skills that are the best taught and learnt at home. The composer was taught these skills by his mother.
