

Programme Guidance for the New Zealand Qualification

Te Tuapapa Hei Whai i te Ao Marama

(Kaupae 4) [Ref: 2880]

New Zealand Certificate in the Care and Enabling of Disabled Tāngata Māori (Level 4)

Qualification outcomes	Programme guidance
Programmes may include knowledge and skills in the following key focus areas:
1 Apply Māori cultural values to establish and maintain quality relationships and partnerships between disabled tāngata Māori, their whānau and a range of stakeholders as an expression of whanaungatanga. Credits 10	Whanaungatanga <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Te reo, tikanga, kawa, whakapapa - Whānau as the principal source of enablement for many disabled tāngata Māori - Whānau assisted to enable disabled family members - Valued partnerships with whānau, hapū, iwi, and Māori communities
2 Empower disabled tāngata Māori and their whānau to access a range of culturally appropriate and mana enhancing disability, health, and social services as an expression of kaitiakitanga. Credits 10	Kaitiakitanga <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Culturally safe and trustworthy disability enabling services - Equitable resource allocation for Māori-focused disability enabling services - Socioeconomic solutions for disabled tāngata Māori - Expression and promotion of advocacy and self-advocacy
3 Develop knowledge, technologies, and strategies that support improved Māori knowledge of, and access to, disability enabling services for disabled tāngata Māori and their whānau as an expression of pūkengatanga. Credits 10	Pūkengatanga <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - A high strategic priority placed on improving Māori disability outcomes - Better Māori knowledge of and access to disability enabling services - Interventions towards developing a good life - Enabling knowledge and technology

4	Build knowledge of the importance for disabled tāngata Māori and their whānau, their connection to the land, people, and to their local/tribal kawa and tikanga in relationship with their whānau, hapū, iwi and their communities of choice as an expression of turangawaewae. Credits 15	Turangawaewae <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Connection to the whenua/moana, hapū, iwi, marae - Disabled tāngata Māori have roles within their whānau and in their communities of choice - Acceptance of Māori diversity and disability experience - Change the attitudes of whānau, hapū, iwi and communities to support the vision for disabled tāngata Māori
5	Analyse and review the delivery of quality and effective Māori disability enabling services where disabled tāngata Māori and their whānau have greater personal leadership, choice, and control over disability supports accessed as an expression of rangatiratanga. Credits 15	Rangatiratanga <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Leadership, choice and control over disability supports accessed - Full Māori participation in planning and delivering disability enabling services - Enabling Māori with disabilities to take more responsibility in their lives to plan, goal set, be self-reliant, and independent