This question requires a response written in German, to a passage spoken in German played from a recording. Erklären Sie, warum Likes so viel für Julia bedeuten. Sind Sie derselben Meinung wie Julia?

POSSIBLE EVIDENCE:

Was Likes für Julia bedeuten:	Was Likes für Julia bedeuten:
 Likes sind einfach ein Beweis, dass Leute sie kennen oder etwas mögen. Wenn sie viele Likes bekommt, fühlt sie sich verstanden. 	 Wenn man viele Likes hat, dann weiss jeder, dass man "cool" ist und so gewinnt man an Selbstbewusstsein.
 Die Likes sind eine Motivation, das Internet immer stärker zu nutzen. Likes wirken also wie Sex, Sport, Urlaub, Autos oder neue Schuhe. 	• Dank Dopamin, das im Gehirn produziert wird, bekommt man ein gutes Gefühl beim Posten und Liken.
 Likes wirken also wie Sex, Sport, Onaub, Autos oder nede Schuhe. Likes könnten gefährlich sein und haben mit Realität nicht mehr viel zu tun. Leute, die täglich zu viel Zeit auf Instagram verbringen, sollen stattdessen mehr Zeit mit ihren Freunden und ihrer Familie verbringen – d.h. Familie und Freunde sind wichtiger als Likes. 	• Sie hat gefunden, dass die User, die aktiv waren, viel posteten und viele Likes bekamen, generell besser gelaunt waren als die passiven Nutzer.
	 Es besteht die Gefahr an einer Posting-Phobie zu leiden – wenn man keine Updates mehr posten will – aus Sorge, keine oder zu wenig Likes zu bekommen
	• Es ist eben einfach ein Grundbedürfnis des Menschen, in seiner Community gemocht oder akzeptiert zu werden.
	 Heute sagen dir noch tausend Leute, wie toll du bist, morgen kann das schon wieder ganz anders sein – d.h. Likes sind nicht für immer.
Sind Sie derselben Meinung?	Sind Sie derselben Meinung?
• Interprets the stimulus material and makes connections with their own ideas, that go beyond the given material.	• Develops and integrates sophisticated personal opinions, beliefs, viewpoints, or ideas that are perceptive and insightful.

Note: Candidate responses are judged holistically. Teachers and candidates should refer to student exemplars from previous years on the NZQA website to help them understand what is required for success in New Zealand Scholarship.

 Hoeder discovered the term "Afro-German" had only been around since the 1980s. Racism in Germany existed before the Nazis / Second World War. Question Three

This question requires a response in spoken German. Würden Sie lieber mit Julia oder mit Ciani-Sophia ins Gespräch kommen und warum?

POSSIBLE EVIDENCE:

Candidates must choose references from both texts.

References from listening passage:

- I also like looking at photos, so would like to share Julia's showing her at festivals, at home with her dog, and at the beach.
- I also rely on social media for being up to date and adapting to the latest fashions.
- Julia sounds shallow only interested in fashion, beauty, and lifestyle.
- She sounds naïve saying that negative emotions don't belong to photos and not to reality either.
- She also sounds needy she feels understood and confident because of people "liking" her.
- It is stupid to say that those who spend a lot of time online posting and liking others' comments are generally happier than those who don't have such an active online social life.
- If she knows that platforms like Instagram encourage envy, why does she persist in being an influencer? This continual comparison can stop young people from finding out who they really are.
- She should get a life. You shouldn't have to follow an influencer to decide what clothes to wear, what to eat, and how to live.
- She clearly realises that what you see on the internet is often not genuine, but still persists in adding to this false image.

References from reading text:

- Ciani-Sophia Hoeder is the editor of a magazine.
- She has experienced racism in Germany.
- She is very knowledgeable about Afro-Germans in Germany.
- I have also experienced racism.
- She talks about an uncomfortable topic / a topic that doesn't interest me.
- There is not much I can talk to her about / I don't have much in common with her.
- History isn't a topic that interests me.
- I am not interested in politics / I am not as politically aware as her.

Note: Candidate responses are judged holistically, and grammatical accuracy should not be not the main criteria. Substance and comprehensibility are more important in this question.
