Information relating to all achievement standards

The assessments will each consist of THREE questions written in Samoan and English based on the texts provided.

Text choices for both standards will reflect appropriate cultural contexts, for example Samoan-speaking communities, te ao Māori, the Pacific, and Aotearoa New Zealand. Texts may develop a line of argument relating to concrete and abstract matters of social interest.

In Level 3 Samoan examinations, candidates can respond in Samoan, English, or te reo Māori.

Further information about digital external assessment can be found on the NZQA website.

Special notes

Level 3 Samoan will use macrons and glottal stops as appropriate.

Words beyond the expected level of knowledge will be glossed if their meaning is not evident from the text.

Special assessment conditions

Refer to the NZQA website for further information:
