The Tūmahi Aromatawai Pātahi (TAPā)

This Tūmahi Aromatawai Pātahi (TAPā), or Common Assessment Activity (CAA), is developed and marked by the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA).

This TAPā will be administered by the Exam Centre Manager. Though the mode of assessment is a TAPā, the end of year examination rules apply. NZQA will prepare and deliver booklets for this TAPā to the appropriate exam centres.

There is a section in this TAPā where candidates must watch a video. Candidates completing this TAPā digitally must use headphones.

External Assessment Specifications

This TAPā has TWO sections.

Section One: Short video and questions

The candidate will watch a short video highlighting an essential principle of the Māori language, such as the 'duality'. The candidate will then answer questions pertaining to the video. The candidate may choose to respond in English or te reo Māori.

Section Two: Written text with questions

The candidate will read a short passage focusing on an essential principle of the Māori language, such as the 'duality'. The candidate will then answer questions pertaining to the text. The candidate may choose to respond in English or te reo Māori.

Key Focus of the External Assessment

In 2026 the language principle will shift to duality. Every two years the language principle will change as stated in the table of contents below.

|      |                                              |
|------|----------------------------------------------|
| 2026 | Te Takiruatanga (Duality)                    |
| 2027 | Te Takiruatanga (Duality)                    |
| 2028 | Te Kaupare Kauawhi (Exclusive and Inclusive) |

Conditions of the External Assessment

The TAPā must be managed by the Exam Centre Manager. Candidates completing this TAPā must observe all NCEA - Assessment and Examination Rules and Procedures. During the assessment the candidate may only use the resources provided for the task.

No written material or other resources may be taken into the examination room. The candidate must complete the TAPā within the allotted time of three hours.

The candidate may choose to respond in English or te reo Māori.
