

Student 2: High Merit
 NZQA Intended for teacher use only

Further Linking Web Analysis

Analysis
The information on the web should be used to inform the design of the exhibition space. The design should be based on the information gathered from the website and the design should be based on the information gathered from the website.

Design
The design should be based on the information gathered from the website and the design should be based on the information gathered from the website.

Final Assessment
The final assessment should be based on the information gathered from the website and the design should be based on the information gathered from the website.

Review Analysis SUMMARY

Problem
The problem was to design an exhibition space that was both functional and aesthetically pleasing. The design should be based on the information gathered from the website and the design should be based on the information gathered from the website.

Research
The research was conducted through a variety of sources, including books, articles, and websites. The research was used to inform the design of the exhibition space.

Design
The design was based on the information gathered from the website and the design should be based on the information gathered from the website.

Final Assessment
The final assessment was based on the information gathered from the website and the design should be based on the information gathered from the website.

Aesthetic Considerations
The aesthetic considerations were based on the information gathered from the website and the design should be based on the information gathered from the website.

Functional Considerations
The functional considerations were based on the information gathered from the website and the design should be based on the information gathered from the website.

EXHIBITION SITES

MAVE PRESENCE
The Mave Presence exhibition site was designed to be both functional and aesthetically pleasing. The design was based on the information gathered from the website and the design should be based on the information gathered from the website.

MOJEN SITE
The Mojen Site exhibition site was designed to be both functional and aesthetically pleasing. The design was based on the information gathered from the website and the design should be based on the information gathered from the website.

Concepts

REAC Site
The REAC Site exhibition site was designed to be both functional and aesthetically pleasing. The design was based on the information gathered from the website and the design should be based on the information gathered from the website.