	1 This story reminded me about things in my own life, because I am also a teenager like Mia. I am not a princess, but I am special. I am popular because I have lots of friends and I am only the one from Croatia. I also don't like algebra and maths but I am good at sports.

Title of text	Talking to people from another country
Text type	Reading resources
Author or source	Compass media
Personal Response
	2 The text was interesting for me because I learned something new. For example in China they have different words meaning lost in the Chinese language. And another word meaning something stolen. So if a person says I lost my wallet person cannot understand and think that they left it somewhere.
