Student guidelines

Introduction

This standard requires you to complete the following tasks, with guidance:

1. Plan and prepare a presentation to communicate a detailed understanding of an aspect of Pacific culture.
2. Present an aspect of Pacific culture which follows the plan.

Guidance means the teacher can help you only with the steps involved in planning and carrying out the presentation.

Detailed refers to understanding that has breadth or depth.

Structured content is in logical order and contributes to a coherent presentation.

Effectively refers to structure and communication that is credible and connected.

Convincingly refers to structure and communication that that is compelling and well organised.

Important information

- Each of the above tasks must be achieved to gain credit for this unit standard.
- This standard can be achieved with Achieved, Merit and Excellence grades.

The presentation can be in different forms. Some examples are dance, poetry, song, story, drama, arts, crafts, speech, power point presentation, poster, seminar, 3D model, demonstration, meal, rap, photographs, facilitated discussion. Some forms may require you to submit an additional oral or written explanation of your presentation.

1. The form selected must follow conventions for that form eg for a speech the conventions include: structure, eye contact, voice modulation, body language and gestures, timing, response to audience questions.
2. Your assessor will provide some guidance regarding the planning and presentation in this assessment.
3. You will be assessed on your understanding of the aspect of Pacific Culture and on the quality of your presentation.
