Dear Sir,

The Association of Indian Universities has accorded equivalence to the following qualifications of New Zealand with +2 stage qualification of an Indian Board which is the minimum eligibility requirements for admission to Bachelor Degree programme at Indian Universities.

NCEA Level III has been equated with Grade 12, Level II with Grade 11 and Level I with Grade 10 of an Indian Board.

Candidate having obtained the above qualifications can obtain an Equivalence Certificate from this Office on production of above Certificates authenticated either by the Indian High Commission in New Zealand (<http://www.hicomind.org.nz/hoinz/consular-services/misc-services/#misc5>) or New Zealand High Commission, Sir Edmund Hillary Marg, Chanakyapuri, New Delhi 110021.

An application form can be downloaded from the AIU website www.aiuweb.org (refer to the Evaluation Division).

The students are advised to submitted their filled in application alongwith a remittance of Rs.12,000/- towards Equivalence Fee, accepted in the form of Demand Draft only favouring "ASSOCIATION OF INDIAN UNIVERSITIES".

Thanking you,

Yours Sincerely,

Sambhar Srivastava
